Pipe Organ Discovery Day - February 18, 2006

By Phil Asgian

This is a fun-filled event to expose young people (regardless of age) to the pipe organ. It provides opportunities for hands-on playing experience as well as an opportunity to learn more about how the pipe organ works. A registration flyer with specific information is enclosed on page 13 in this issue and is also being e-mailed to members for advance registration. In addition, lunch is free! If you have piano students who may be interested in the organ, this could be a great opportunity for them to consider expanding their reach. □

PIPENOTES is the official publication of the Twin Cities Chapter, American Guild of Organists, and is published 9 times a year, September – June. The December and January issues are combined.

DEADLINE DATE: Information for PIPENOTES should be received no later than the 1st of the month preceding publication. Subscription cost for persons who are not members of the TCAGO is $40/year.

Dean's Column

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

One of the most anticipated TCAGO programs of the season is being presented February 4th and 5th! The renowned Emma Lou Diemer will be here for a workshop and concert featuring her organ and choral works at St. Michael's Lutheran Church in Bloomington. Several choirs and instrumentalists will be involved in this exciting presentation. Do not miss this special event!

As we entice young people to learn about the pipe organ, another Pipe Organ Discovery Day is scheduled for February 18th at St. Mark's Episcopal Church and Hennepin Avenue United Methodist Church in Minneapolis. Please spread the word for this wonderful opportunity of exploration! You could bring a young person from your church. Adults are always welcome to observe as well. Contact Phil Asgian (651.293.9115 or asgianphil@qwest.net) for more information.

A few months ago I had mentioned to you our desire to help Katrina victims in some way. After contacting Steven Blackmon, Dean of the New Orleans Chapter AGO, I received a most poignant response. Following are excerpts:

"Thanks so much for your email.....we appreciate being remembered during this bizarre time that has disrupted so many lives. One of our biggest problems has been actually being able to contact our membership.....as with any other group or institution, when the storm was bearing down on us, we just scattered all over the country. Those of us who have come back are finding churches virtually destroyed, jobs lost, organs ruined (some wonderful and irreplaceable tracker-action instruments from the mid-1880s), congregations reeling and unsure whether they can continue to pay their staff, etc....We're starting to refer to ourselves [borderline good-humoredly] as suffering from PKSS – Post-Katrina Stress Syndrome.

Money is an issue for many of our displaced members; however, National's endeavor was only able to raise about 7,000 dollars, and even that got thinned out over three storms.....

Music, however, is one thing we can definitely use. Our board has been able to locate a bit more than half of our membership either living back in their homes or staying with friends locally. I'm afraid, though, that if we wait for individuals to come up with lists of what they might have lost, it will come to naught.....our brains are kind of fried and we're so overwhelmed with the business of getting the infrastructure of our lives back in place that, when asked specifically what music we need, we just kind of go into this PKSS fugue state [no pun intended] and find ourselves unable to wrap our heads around the question. We HAVE called a meeting for December 12.....just a general pot-luck meeting so we can get together and just BE with our own little flock. If we had a stack of musical materials to spread out on a table for our gang to pore over and select from, I know it would be a tremendous morale booster. Not everyone has lost entire libraries, but most everyone has lost something, and just knowing that there are sister chapters out there who are being pro-active will help so much. If everyone who attends the meeting could just walk away with just one or two pieces of music each and always have them in their libraries and always know that they came as an act of kindness at a really difficult time.....well, they'd never forget it..."

In response to this and on short notice, your TCAGO Board gathered and sent 85 pounds of music to them for this meeting. Here is Steve Blackmon's response:

"I wish you could have seen our gang tonight....like kids in a candy store going through all the music....You'll be receiving a card from us, so keep an eye open for it; but, for the moment, please accept my personal thanks for your chapter's generosity and especially to you for making it all happen. There was some really great stuff in those boxes. It was, surprisingly, one of the best-attended meetings in a while, in spite of several members' still being out of town. Please deliver these sentiments to your chapter at your next meeting, and let them know just what a morale-lifting thing this was..."

By the time you read my Dean's Letter, we will have sent more boxes of music to these needy people. Thank you to those of you who responded so willingly.

I can't think of a better way to begin a new year than helping those in need. God bless you.

Peace and Joy to all,

Judy Campen

A Grass Roots Goal

by Laura Edman

National statistics show a general decline in AGO regular memberships and the TCAGO chapter shows a similar trend. In 2001, regular members numbered 275. In 2004, there were 241 members in that category. Special members increased and student memberships decreased. The current TCAGO board decided last October that this issue needs to be addressed now and has accepted the National AGO Membership Development Committee's 2005-2006 challenge to increase chapter membership through its "Each One – Reach One" campaign.

There are currently three members on the newly created membership development committee: Laura Edman, chair, Linda Armstrong and Merritt Nequette. This committee will be responsible for updating membership recruitment literature and mailing letters to prospective members such as young organists, students and friends of the organ. Other duties will be to maintain a membership database that will track membership statistics and the implementation of membership development strategies.

The main reasons the TCAGO board decided to pursue membership development are the many strengths we have as a chapter – the first being its members. Other strengths include a top-notch newsletter, Pipenotes, the TCAGO website, Organ Discovery Days, the Michael Barone Scholarship Program, an organ competition, relevant and thoughtful programming, recitals by chapter members and national and world-renowned artists and colleagues that continually inspire and energize one another. In addition to the above, rich musical offerings by local churches and musicians create a diverse culture abundant in tradition and progressive in encouraging contemporary composers and their music.

Over the next three months, we as a chapter need to increase our membership by fifteen people. The board and Membership Development Committee cannot achieve this goal alone. It is crucial that members take responsibility for ensuring the health and strength of our organization so that it remains vital. Remind colleagues of the importance of maintaining membership in the TCAGO, or invite an organ aficionado to join the ranks to further their exposure and knowledge of the instrument. Encourage students to become members now and begin networking for future jobs. Finally, follow your passion for the organ and its music. We, as an organization, will be stronger through the energy of each individual member.

In the months ahead, look for membership testimonials from current chapter members and updates on the progress of our membership goals. If you are interested in joining the Membership Development Committee please contact Laura Edman at tlmaedman@comcast.net. The TCAGO "Each One – Reach One" campaign has begun! □

Todd Wilson in Concert at Bethel University

By Randy Hall

We are excited to announce that Todd Wilson will be in concert at Bethel University on Friday, February 10, 2006 at 7:30 pm. He will be playing on our Blackinton organ in the Benson Great Hall. Please put this concert on your calendar for a special evening of outstanding organ music. The concert is free.

One of America's leading concert organists, Todd Wilson is Director of Music and Organist at The Church of the Covenant (Presbyterian), Cleveland, Ohio, where he heads a program of choirs as well as a concert series. The Church of the Covenant is located in Cleveland's University Circle, an arts, education and medical center which houses Severance Hall, the Cleveland Museum of Art, the Cleveland Clinic, and Case Western Reserve University, as well as The Cleveland Institute of Music, where Mr. Wilson is Chairman of the Organ Department. Mr. Wilson is also the Organ Curator of the recently restored Norton Memorial Organ (E. M. Skinner, 1931) in Severance Hall, home of the Cleveland Orchestra.

Todd Wilson has been heard in concert in many major cities throughout the United States, Europe and Japan. In 1992 he was a recitalist for Austrian Radio in Vienna, as well as in concert with the Slovakian Radio Symphony Orchestra in a performance of Samuel Barber's Toccata Festiva. During June of the same year, he performed Jean Langlais' Piece in Free Form and Howard Hanson's Concerto for Organ, Strings and Harp with members of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra as part of the National Convention of the American Guild of Organists. Also in 1992 he played the Antiphonal Fantasy by Norman Dello Joio with the Naples (Florida) Philharmonic, followed by a recording of it, along with works by Ives and Persichetti with that orchestra for Summit Records. In July of 1996 he was featured in the opening concert of the Centennial National Convention of the American Guild of Organists, at St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City. In October of that same year he played two concerts with orchestra as part of the festivities dedicating the new organ given by Van Cliburn at the Broadway Baptist Church in Ft. Worth, Texas. In May of 2001 Mr. Wilson made his solo debut with the Cleveland Orchestra on the newly restored E. M. Skinner organ at Severance Hall in two performances of the Symphonie Concertante by Joseph Jongen, and in October 2002 he again appeared with the Cleveland Orchestra in four performances of the Organ Symphony by Aaron Copland. In June 2003 he dedicated the organ in the new 21,000-seat Mormon Conference Center in Salt Lake City. In October 2004 he was organ soloist with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra on the first orchestra subscription series concerts featuring the new organ at Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles, and in January 2005 he presented his first solo recital in Tokyo, Japan.

Mr. Wilson's latest CD, released in 2005, is on the JAV label and features a live recital of American music at The National Cathedral in Washington, DC, and is the latest CD joining others he has also recorded on the JAV label.

Mr. Wilson received his Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from the College-Conservatory of Music at the University of Cincinnati, where he studied organ with Wayne Fisher and piano with John Quincy Bass. Further coaching in organ repertoire was with Russell Saunders at The Eastman School of Music. An active member of the American Guild of Organists, Mr. Wilson holds the Fellow and Choirmaster certificates from that institution, and won the S. Lewis Elmer Prize for the highest national exam score in 1982. He has been a featured recitalist at many Guild conventions.

He has won numerous competitions, including the prestigious French Grand Prix de Chartres, the Fort Wayne Competition, the Strader National Scholarship Competition and the national competition sponsored by the First Congregational Church of Los Angeles. A sought-after adjudicator, Mr. Wilson has been a member of the jury for many of the world's most prestigious competitions such as The Nürnberg Competition (Germany), the Dallas Competition, the Royal College of Organists' Performer of the Year Competition, the Calgary International Organ Festival and Competition, the St. Alban's International Organ Festival (England), the Grand Prix de Chartres and the Toulouse Festival Competitions (France), the American Guild of Organists National Young Artists Competition and the Ft. Wayne Competition.

Having grown up in the men and boys choir of Trinity Church in Toledo, the choirs and music of the Anglican tradition have been an influential part of Mr. Wilson's musical life. During 1978-79 he served as a visiting assistant in music at Canterbury Cathedral in England under Dr. Allan Wicks. At the Cathedral of the Incarnation, Mr. Wilson directed one of the longest-running choirs of men and boys in continuous existence in the United States. Mr. Wilson frequently presents workshops on English choral and organ music, as well as on service playing. An active interest in improvisation has led to his popular improvised accompaniments to classic silent films. He has been organ clinician at the Evergreen Conference (for Episcopal church musicians) in Colorado, twice at the Montreat Conference on Worship and Music, at the National Music Camp at Interlochen and for the Presbyterian Association of Musicians. In 1992 and 1993 he was the director of the Pipe Organ Encounter for the AGO, held in Cleveland. □

Michael Rodelius Obituary

Submitted by Kathryn Moen

Michael J. Rodelius, age 65, of Minneapolis, formerly of Willmar, died Saturday evening, November 12th, at the Fairview Southdale Hospital in Edina.

Funeral services were held on Friday, November 18th, 2005, 1:30 pm at Bethel Lutheran Church in Willmar with Rev. Thomas Mundahl officiating. Interment was in the Cloverleaf Memorial Park Cemetery.

Michael John Rodelius was born on June 4, 1940, in Willmar, the son of Lillian (Hanson) and Nimrod Rodelius. He grew up in this city, was baptized at the First Baptist Church and graduated from the Willmar High School in 1958. He attended Bethel College in St. Paul for three years, later graduated from the MacPhail School of Music in Minneapolis and completed other music studies. For a time he was employed by the First National Bank in Minneapolis. For several years he was a church organist and choir master in various churches in the Twin Cities area including Central Lutheran Church. He was a member of the American Guild of Organists and other professional organizations. Ill health forced his retirement in 2003.

He is survived by one brother, Robert (and Debra) Rodelius of Willmar, several nieces, nephews, cousins and aunts, besides other relatives and friends. Michael was preceded in death by his parents and three brothers (James, Mark and Paul Rodelius).

Joseph Adam in Recital at St. Thomas

by James Callahn

Joseph Adam will present a guest organ recital in the St. Thomas Aquinas Chapel at the University of St. Thomas on Monday, February 27, 2006, at 8:15 pm.

Organist Joseph Adam enjoys a multi-faceted career as performer, church musician and teacher, and is recognized as a leading organist of his generation. He was appointed Cathedral Organist at St. James Cathedral in Seattle in 1993; since 1997 he has also been a faculty member at the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma.

Joseph Adam

His playing received international attention when he was awarded the First Prize in the St. Albans International Organ Competition in 1991, one of the most prestigious organ competitions in the world. His subsequent performances have included recitals in notable venues throughout Western Europe and America. He gives frequent recitals at St. James Cathedral, where his programs have included the complete organ works of Maurice Duruflé and the Six Symphonies of Louis Vierne. His appearances have included performances at the national conventions of numerous professional organizations, including the American Guild of Organists, the National Association of Pastoral Musicians, the Conference of Roman Catholic Cathedral Musicians and the Organ Historical Society. He performs regularly at Seattle's Benaroya Hall, where he presents an ongoing organ demonstration recital series and performs and records with the Seattle Symphony Orchestra. He was one of three organists invited to perform on the new Rosales/Glatte-Götz organ at Disney Hall in Los Angeles as part of the 2004 National Convention of the American Guild of Organists; this performance has been featured on the nationally-syndicated radio program Pipe Dreams. His recent European appearances include recitals in cathedrals and noted churches in eastern Germany and France, highlighted with a performance on the historic 1746 Andreas Silbermann organ in Marmoutier, France. His performances this season include a series of four recitals at St. James Cathedral exploring the French Organ Symphony, including works by Widor, Vierne, Barié, Fleury, Langlais and Hakim; a recital at the Cathedral of the Madeleine in Salt Lake City, and concerto performances of Handel and Poulenc with the Seattle Symphony Orchestra.

His first solo recording, Melodia: German Romantic Organ Works, recorded on the Hutchings-Votey organ at St. James Cathedral by Loft Recordings, has received high praise in Fanfare and The American Organist magazines. L'organiste parisien, a recording of French works on the Rosales organ at St. James Cathedral was released by Gothic Recordings; it features Naji Hakim's The Last Judgment, which received its first performance at the dedicatory recital by Adam in June, 2000.

Joseph Adam is a native of Iowa, and received his musical training at the University of Iowa, where he received the Bachelor of Music and Master of Fine Arts degrees in piano. He began doctoral studies with further training as an organist at the Eastman School of Music, where he was awarded the Performer's Certificate in Organ. His organ teachers have included David Jenkins, Delores Bruch, Russell Saunders and Carole Terry. He is currently completing work for the Doctor of Musical Arts at the University of Washington.
